

Peer Support Co-ordinator

About us

With a 50 year heritage of service to the community, Cancer Council Queensland is the State's leading independent organisation in cancer control. The scope of our work includes cancer research, patient care, prevention and early detection, and support services. Over the past 50 years, we have invested over $250 million to support Queenslanders affected by cancer. With more than 200 staff, 2,500 registered volunteers, and tens of thousands of supporters statewide, we are committed to creating hope for a cancer free future.

About the role

Do you want to make a difference? Join our team and work on the development, co-ordination and evaluation of Cancer Council Queensland's peer support programs for people affected by cancer.

You will co-ordinate the recruitment, training and supervision of peer support volunteers, liaise with staff in our regional offices to administer peer support programs and examine and evaluate opportunities to enhance the existing program.

This position is a two year contract.

About you

To be successful, you must have tertiary qualifications in nursing or allied health and demonstrated experience in the provision of cancer support services and/or experience in oncology.

If you possess excellent communication skills, previous volunteer management experience and have an understanding of the psychological impact of cancer on individuals and families, including the role that peer support plays in the provision of care, then we would love to hear from you.

Benefits

Cancer Council Queensland is a growing community-based organisation offering staff flexible work arrangements, salary packaging opportunities, numerous staff discounts, and a supportive team environment where healthy lifestyle balance is encouraged.
