

Qari Ziyaad Patel was born in Ladysmith, Kwazulu Natal, South Africa.

He completed his Hifz in 1994 at Ogies-Mpumalanga at the age of 14. He then returned to his hometown of Ladysmith to continue perfecting his Tajweed thereafter proceeded to Cairo - Egypt to study Tajweed Al-Makharej at the Al-Azhar University under the tutelage and guidance of Sheikh Abdullah Atiya Bayomi, where he further underwent Qiraah training. He was awarded a shahdah from Sheikh Abdullah Attiya Bayomi, which was endorsed by Sheik Sayed Ali Tantawi, the most senior sheik at Al-Azhar University.

He received a degree in the field of Information Science from the University of Johannesburg, a Diploma in Humanitarian Assistance from the University of Liverpool and an Advanced Diploma in the Management of Humanitarian Interventions from the Institute of International Political Studies in Milan, Italy.

He has shared the platform on numerous occasions with great personalities like Sheikh Abu Bakr Shatri and Mufti Menk. He is Al Imdaad Foundation's international projects coordinator who has traveled extensively for humanitarian aid to war torn countries and countries suffering due to natural disasters etc like Libya, Somalia, Tunisia, Haiti, Indonesia, Mozambique, Malawi, Zimbabwe, Syria, Jordan and Kenya.