“Our heartfelt sympathies and condolences are extended to the victims of the latest terrorist attack in Pakistan.” Said Mr. Hafez Kassem, president of Muslims Australia.

“We categorically condemn all murder of civilians regardless of race and religion.” Said Mr Kassem.

“We praise the unity that the international community has established in combatting terrorism. We offer all our resources and skills to assist in identifying terror recruiters and prosecuting them. In order to eliminate terrorism, we need to employ a greater effort to address the root catalysts that render people vulnerable to recruitment and transformation into violent murderers. We need to improve public awareness that terrorism exploits vulnerable people only to advance the political ambitions of the recruiters.” Said Keysar Trad, recently elected treasurer of Muslims Australia.
