

Effective Communication & Negotiation

- With Sister Hanan Al-Alawneh

When: Sunday 16 July 2017
2:00pm - 3:30pm

Where: Islamic Society of Algester,
48 Learoyd Road, Algester

Part 1: Communication and Representational Systems (RS)

- What are they and how do we identify our preferred RS?
- How does our RS affect how we interpret our life experiences and how do we communicate it back to others?
- How do we communicate effectively with people who have different RS?

Part 2: Negotiation and the Hierarchy of Ideas

- What is the Hierarchy of Ideas?
- How do we use this concept in negotiation, for effective outcomes?

Bringing an Islamic focus to this topic, Sister Hanan provides insight into how our interpretation of our life experiences affects how we communicate with others, and how to communicate and negotiate effectively with people who have different communication styles.

Filled with practical games and activities, this workshop aims to give you tips on how to apply these concepts in everyday interaction across all relationships. This workshop is open to all young people and those young at heart. Bring a friend and see if you have the gift of the gab!

FREE EVENT but please register to attend:
<https://www.trybooking.com/book/event?eid=287360>

About the speaker:

Sister Hanan, Life coach, Trainer and Owner of Diamond Mind Life Coaching, is a registered hypnotherapist, Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) coach and Time Line Therapist, helping people seeking improvement in their life. Her passion is to improve communities through combining good education with a physically, mentally and emotionally health lifestyle.

Light refreshments will be served after the workshop

