MUSLIMS CELEBRATE HAJJ PILGRIMAGE AND EID UL ADHA

On this occasion of Eid ul Adha, I extend sincere greetings to your families and the Muslim community of Australia on behalf of the Australian Federation of Islamic Councils. Hajj Mabrook to all who have made the journey to perform Hajj. We pray and look forward to your safe return, Insha Allah. It is also a time for sacrifice in the great traditions of our prophets. We also reflect on the plight of those less fortunate and those who are suffering at this time.

I take the opportunity on behalf of the Muslims of Australia to also extend our good wishes to all Australians of all faiths on this auspicious occasion of Eid ul Adha and pray for peace, harmony and goodwill among all Australians and all over the world.

During this festive break I encourage every one to relax and enjoy your time with your loved ones and to take care on the roads if you are driving.

With best wishes for a joyful Eid.
