

Australia Indonesia Muslim Leaders Exchange

2008 Invitation for Applications

Applications are invited from young Australian Muslim leaders to travel to Indonesia in 2008 under the Australia-Indonesia Muslim Leaders Exchange.

The Exchange was established by the Australia-Indonesia Institute in 2002 to enable young Muslim leaders in Australia and Indonesia to visit each others' countries for approximately two weeks to meet Muslims and non-Muslims, to exchange views and to share experiences.

Since 2002, 64 young Indonesian Muslim leaders have visited Australia and 18 young Australian Muslims leaders have travelled to Indonesia.

All costs are covered for the visit to Indonesia. Applications are due by 4 January 2008. Applicants should be under forty years of age, and be an active member of the Muslim community in Australia.

The Australia-Indonesia Institute (AII) supports a range of people-to-people exchanges aimed at promoting greater mutual awareness. The Muslim Leaders Exchange Program is intended to raise the level of informed opinion about Islam in both countries, increase awareness about the diversity of cultures and faiths in Australia and Indonesia, and encourage the development of links between Australian and Indonesian Muslims.

The 2008 Exchange is managed by the Islamic Council of Victoria with the support of the Asia Institute, University of Melbourne.
