2008 AMAA WINNERS

Best New Community Initiative/ Project of the Year

Green Scarf Day NSW

Green Scarf Day is a student-run charity organisation set up in an effort to raise funds for disadvantaged women and children around the world. The project aim is to avoid band-aid solutions to poverty by supporting community development type projects that offer long term solutions. Established by a handful of University of Sydney students in 2007, it has now grown to encompass students in universities across Sydney and Melbourne and is set to expand into WA and SA in 2009.

The Green Scarf Day Foundation is working closely with such organisations as Muslim Aid Australia, Human Appeal Intl., Mahboba's Promise and Baghbaan Intl. to help women and children all over the world. The Foundation is run entirely by a group of committed students determined to build a brighter future and inspire their peers to make a difference.

Mainstream Organisation of the Year- Excellence in interfaith dialogue-relations

Columbian Institute for Muslim/ Christian Relations NSW

One of the mission statements for the Columbian Mission Institute is to promote dialogue between Christians and those of other religions. To achieve this objective, the Columbian Mission Institute holds regular ongoing interreligious dialogues between Christians and Muslims in partnership with Muslim organizations. The aim of these dialogues is to promote mutual understanding between the two religions through learning and respecting of each other's differences whilst acknowledging religious similarities. In line with the church's teachings of interfaith dialogues, the organization and its dedicated staff organise conferences and seminars to enable Christians and Muslims to meet and learn from each other, hold regular workshops as well coordinate programs whereby Christian women can meet with Muslim women on a social level. The Women of Faith Dinner held in May 2008 in coordination with Affinity Intercultural Foundation is one example of such events and included women of all religions (such as Judaism and Buddhist) interacting whilst breaking down barriers and stereotypes.

Business of the Year

One4Kids- Zaky's Learning Club NSW

Subhi Alshaik, founder of One4Kids and creator of the character Zaky is a creative artist with many talents including song & script writing, film making, producing and directing. He is a former musician where he spent eight years in the music industry writing and recording over 50 songs, two of which were aired on 2DayFM. Subhi travelled to London where he had a conversation with Yusuf Islam in 1999 after which he began reading the Biography of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh). He returned to Sydney, Australia to find a recording contract awaiting his signature, but decided to turn his back on the music business.

Subhi produced the first educational documentary film in the world about the prayer, titled 'Pray As You Have Seen Me Pray', as well a short documentary titled 'Islam for the World' and over 100 educational lectures. Soon after realising that his efforts to unite and work with all Muslims was almost impossible, Subhi decided the only way to unite and correct the Ummah would be to plant the seeds in children at an early age. Thus in 2004 'One 4 Kids' and the character 'Zaky' were born. Since then Subhi has produced four children's educational animated films – 'Storytime Adam & Noah', 'Storytime Abraham', 'We Remember Allah' and the recently released 'Time To Pray With Zaky'. He returned to writing and producing songs, only this time for children! His latest production 'Zaky's Adventures' is being produced for both Muslim and non-Muslim children

Media Outlet of the Year

Salam Café VIC

Salam Café is the first Muslim based panel/sketch show to be produced & broadcast on any mainstream television network in the world. Its unique blend of Australian self deprecating humour combined with famous guests and stereo type breaking commentary and discussion includes topics as diverse as an Islamic school application in Camden to Polygamy. Filmed in front of live television audiences in Melbourne and Sydney, the program now has a weekly timeslot aired on SBS television. Panel members of Salam Café are young and vibrant and include the famous Muslim comedian Nazeem Hussain, Susan Carland, Waleed Aly and the host Ahmed Imam.

Community/ Humanitarian Organisation Award

Affinity Intercultural Foundation NSW

Affinity Intercultural Foundation was established by a group of young Australian Muslims in early 2001 in order to meet the needs of the Muslim community by increasing interaction within general society as well as increase public awareness of the Muslim community, its religion and cultures. In line with its mission, Affinity Intercultural Foundation continues in creating and sustaining enduring relationships with people through inter-cultural and inter-faith dialogue and understanding. In a short space of time since its inception in 2001, Affinity Intercultural Foundation has embarked on a number of significant projects to foster dialogue between Muslims and various Christian groups (Catholic, Anglican and Protestant) through two main areas of dialogue and education. Affinity Intercultural Foundation provides a range of information and educational services to individuals, corporate and non-profit organisations, academic institutions and governmental authorities via a dedicated group of skilled men and women who deliver seminars and courses on Islam, Islamic history, culture and any other related areas of interest such as the Australian Muslim community.

Sportsperson of the Year

Safwan Khalil NSW

Safwan Khalil is a Taekwondo athlete and champion who not only represents Australia in Taekwondo but is also an aspiring role model amongst the Muslim community. Since the age of 16 years, Safwan has fast established himself as one of Australia's top elite Taekwondo fighters by adding a long list of gold medal wins and attending world tournaments from Asia to Germany. In 2007 he was the gold medalist in the German Taekwondo Open, he won the first ever gold medal for Australia at the 2003 Junior Asian Championships and a gold medal in the Malaysian Taekwondo Open. He has continued to add distinguished results to his Taekwondo career through his most recent accomplishment when he succeeded in being one of the final five male Olympic Taekwondo contenders for the Beijing Olympic Games and in 2006 was awarded the Senior Athlete of the Year award. Although Safwan did not reach Olympic stardom, he continues to strive toward his dream of not only representing Australia at the next Olympic Games but also through a career in sports and personal training. Safwan has completed his Diploma in Sports Coaching and a Masters in Personal Training. Currently Safwan is completing a Degree in Sports and Exercise Science at the University of Western Sydney.

Lifetime Achiever Award- 25 years of excellence in community/professional service

Aziza Abdel-Halim. A.M. NSW

Aziza Abdel-Halim was born in Egypt and migrated to Australia in the early 1970s, after having completed her Education in Teaching with her husband and 2 young children. In media circles, she is regarded as one of the most high profiled Muslim woman in Australia. Sr. Aziza is a devoted academic who has assisted in research publications. She has organised some of the first Muslim teacher's conventions and Australian Muslim women conferences and received the order of Australian Medal in 2005. Sr. Aziza has engaged in many public speaking events talking about Islam and Women and was chosen in 2004 to become a member of the Prime Minister's Muslim Community Reference Group where she led the Muslim Women sub-group. Leading the way and representing many ethnic-based initiatives, she has spent a large amount of her time teaching Arabic and English to students and immigrants. Aziza has had a wealth of both professional and community involvement that is unmatched by any other Australian Muslim woman and participated in many Advisory Committees. She is also the author of a recent book titled, "Did You know?" a book that is aimed at clearing misconceptions about Australian Muslim women and Islam. As the recipient of this year's Muslim Community Award at the recent Affinity Friendship & Dialogue Dinner & Awards in September this year, Aziza Abdel-Halim has represented Muslim women in both national and international events and we are proud to honour her long-standing and consistent achievements of excellence for over 30 years in Australia.

Professional of the Year

Fadle El-Harris NSW

Fadle is an award winning filmmaker and producer, originally trained in animation, he later extended his talent to include live action film and documentary making. ## Event of the Year

Sounds of Light NSW – VIC –QLD

Human Appeal is a non government charity organization operating in Australia since its establishment in 1984. The Sounds of Light concert was the first ever Islamic concert held in Australia in the year 2007 and due to its success another concert was organized in 2008. Held in the spectacular Acer Arena in Sydney's Olympic Park, the uniqueness of Sounds of Light is that it not only brings to Australian Muslim audiences live performances by popular overseas and local artists but it also generates much needed funds through donations for orphans across the globe.

Volunteer of the Year

Mustafa Ally QLD

Mustafa Ally is a lecturer of Information Systems at the University of Southern Queensland. In his own capacity and as an essential figure in a range of community ventures, he has had great influence in the positive profiling of Muslims living in Queensland. Mustafa Ally's commitment to the community has been widely recognized and in 2008 he was the recipient of the Robbie Williams Multicultural Memorial Citizen of the Year award. As the President of the community based group Crescents of Brisbane, Mustafa has been instrumental in fostering a harmonious and multicultural community through the organisation of numerous community events including the annual CresWalk Fun Run, a 'How to Vote' education workshop for new Australians, Breast Cancer Health workshop for women and numerous fund raising initiatives for mainstream organisations including the Australian Red Cross and Leukemia Foundation. Mustafa is the founder and member of The Queensland Muslims Historical Society (QMHS), and an advisor to Griffith University Saudi Funding.

Currently undertaking a Law degree at Deacon University in Melbourne and holding a Director position at the Islamic Council of Victoria (Youth Wing), Nazeem is mostly recognized for his enormous contribution toward breaking down negative Muslim stereotypes through comedy. He is a panelist and co-founder of the infamous Salam Café on SBS and his comedy show 'Fear of A Brown Planet' was awarded Best New Show at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival. Other comedy performances included the Allah Made Me Funny tour and most recently his appearance at the Sounds of Light concert which raises money for needy orphans across the globe.

Woman of the Year

Galila Abdelsalam QLD

Galila Abdelsalam founded the Islamic Women's Association of Qld (IWAQ) in 1991, an organisation which started with the employment of two workers and which has since expanded with up to 100 employees. The IWAQ aim is to provide a safe support network for Muslim women through referral, information and education opportunities. Galila migrated to Australia from Egypt with her husband and child in the year 1983, however it was their move from Sydney to Brisbane which paved the way for Galila's transformation to a woman of leadership amongst the Muslim community. The Islamic Women's Assoc of QLD started with her first appointment as the vice-president of the local neighborhood centre. Since then Galila Abdelsalam has been involved in various committees including the Greater Brisbane Ministerial Community Regional Forum and a member of the Logan Multicultural Specialist Advisory Group (LMSAG). As a strong advocate for the rights of Muslim women, Galila and the organisation secured federal government funding in 1991 to assist in the resettlement of Muslim refugees and in 1997 funding was granted to run an Aged Care Program. More recently the organisation received an 'Excellence in Care' award by Aged Care Qld.

Man of the Year

Dr Mohamad Abdulla QLD

Dr Mohamad Abdulla is widely recognized amongst Muslims and mainstream Australians for both his academic excellence in Islamic research as well as his tireless work toward securing stronger Muslim and Non Muslim relations via on going interfaith dialogues. Dr Abdulla is the director of the Islamic Research Unit Centre at Griffith University which is the first academic institute to offer Australian Muslims an undergraduate Islamic degree within both the religious and Australian context. As the young Imam of Kuraby mosque in Brisbane, Dr Mohamad Abdulla has been hailed as the new generation of Muslim leaders via his work to promote an 'inclusive society' and foster an increased awareness amongst Non-Muslims about the Islamic faith. He has addressed various audiences at high profile conferences and meetings including the recent 2020 summit in Canberra, a yearly international conference held in Honolulu, Hawaii and at a local level via mosque open days, further increasing the positive profile of Muslims within Australia.
